

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

THE OLD TICKET NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

Harmony the Order of the Hour—Few Delays and the Adjournment Was Hastened Along More Rapidly Than Was at First Anticipated.

Saratoga, Sept. 18.—The old ticket has been renominated by the Republican State Convention, and adjournment has been taken.

Myer Nussbaum, of Albany, presented the name of John Palmer for Secretary of State.

James F. Gluck, of Buffalo, nominated James A. Roberts for Comptroller.

Col. J. S. Cunningham presented Addison B. Colvin for Treasurer.

William M. Griffith nominated State Engineer Adams for a second term.

Michael Driscoll nominated Theodore E. Hancock for Attorney-General.

All of the nominations were made by acclamation.

Judge Celora E. Martin was nominated for the Court of Appeals.

Saratoga, Sept. 17.—The most delightful weather prevails here to-day, and the delegates to the Republican State Convention are making the most of it this morning. Broadway is crowded with delegates out for a morning stroll and the springs are well patronized.

No change has been made in the programme up to this hour, and the old ticket is going through without a hitch.

On the surface there appears to be a hot fight for the nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals. It is a three-cornered contest in which Judge Celora E. Martin, of Binghamton; Jesse Johnson, of Kings; and Judge Pardon C. Williams, of Watertown, are the participants.

Judge Martin is said to be Mr. Platt's choice, and therefore has all the odds in his favor. Johnson's friends are making a good fight in his behalf and claim to have over 100 votes which will be cast for him on the first ballot. They hope to land their candidate on the hypothesis that Mr. Platt will consent to relax a little and placate Kings county and adjacent districts by permitting the selection of a man from that section of the State for the position.

Dr. Carey, of Saratoga, delivered the opening prayer. Secretary Kenyon proceeded to call the roll, beginning with Albany county. Mr. Barnes rose and stated that William S. Van Zandt had been substituted as a delegate in place of John Palmer, and Albert McCubrey in place of T. H. Richardson.

The roll call then proceeded with comparatively few substitutions. When Herkimer arose to announce the substitution of John Humphrey for Albert H. Doud, he was applauded.

The seat of Mr. Platt was on the end of the first aisle to the left of the convention hall, and he had the eyes of the ladies on the platform and the ears of the reporters, with whom he chatted with his customary calculated affability.

When New York was called the announcement of the substitution of John E. Milholland for Cornelius N. Bliss inspired a rousing cheer for both gentlemen.

Thomas B. Reed's name was greeted effusively.

The committee on resolutions voted the excise plank of John E. Milholland down by a vote of 210 to 7. Mr. Milholland will present a minority report.

Those who voted with Milholland for the excise plank were: Messrs. Mullin, Bursleigh, Miller, French, Smith and Steele.

The Platform.

The Republican party of New York, by its delegates in convention assembled, makes the following declaration of its principles:

We reaffirm our adherence to the policy of protection, and we demand such legislation as will afford an adequate income for the maintenance of the government, while giving encouragement to American capital and remunerative to American labor.

We denounce the Wilson tariff with its iniquitous income tax (happily declared unconstitutional) as the first step accomplished in the campaign for the annihilation of American industries begun by Grover Cleveland in December, 1887. This measure is neither a tariff for protection, nor a tariff for revenue, but a tariff for deficit, falling by scores of millions a year to raise the amount of revenue necessary for the normal expense of our national government.

We denounce the Democratic administration for its gross mismanagement of the finances of the nation. It already has added more than $150,000,000 to the national debt and the burdens of the people and there is every evidence that this increase is to be continued.

We denounce the Democratic administration for its false and misleading statements of the public expenditures, and for its failure to properly pay the nation's honest debts that it may be able to present a delusive statement of the treasury's actual condition.

We welcome the dawn of returning prosperity following the Republican victories of 1894—these victories giving assurance that the Democratic party has been rendered powerless to work further destruction to American industries and that the duty of repairing Democratic inroads upon them will be prosecuted with undiminished vigor, and we denounce the attempts of the Democratic administration newspaper organs to mislead the public as to the real character of the country. With complete return of the Republican party to power and the enactment of such remedial legislation as the conditions plainly require, we confidently look for a renewal of the prosperity that marked the quarter century of its government of the country.

In behalf of American citizens in other countries, who are entitled to the utmost protection in all emergencies, we

FIGHTING WARNER MILLER AT HOME.

Bitter Factional Contest in Herkimer County Between Miller and Sheard Forces.

Little Falls, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The great factional contest in this county is still undecided. Both factions claim the victory. The county committee will stand ten and eleven one way or the other. There will be two contested delegations.

The town of German Flats which adjoins Herkimer, the home of Warner Miller, went strongly for Sheard, and the caucus of nearly one thousand Republicans refused to pass a resolution instructing the delegates to support Miller as a delegate to the State Convention, although Miller made a personal fight in this town.

Marble, another Miller stronghold, went for Sheard, and the city of Little Falls was unanimous for him.

The lines are now drawn, and the fight is between Miller and Sheard to a finish. The struggle is bitter. To-day's convention will be the stormiest in the history of Herkimer county politics.

This is the first time that Warner Miller ever had opposition in this county, and the result thus far indicates that he is not invincible.

NO RAILROAD FOR SCHROON LAKE.

Judge Chertree at Glens Falls Refuses to Appoint a Commission.

Glens Falls, Sept. 17.—A special term of County Court was held in Glens Falls on yesterday afternoon, Judge A. J. Chertree presiding. Anna Fonda and E. A. Savin made application for the appointment of a commission to lay out a road on the shore of Schroon Lake.

The application was opposed by Judge Freedman, of the Superior Court of New York, a property owner on Schroon Lake, and by Counselor S. H. Bevins. James A. Skiff, of Pottersville, appeared for Adele A. Ogden in opposition to the proposed road. Judge Chertree denied the application, on the ground that the highway described in the papers submitted was too indefinite.

HUNTING EACH OTHER WITH RIFLES.

Two Georgia Families to Settle a Quarrel with Winchester.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 17.—Yesterday afternoon the male members of the Brown and Stevens families, living near Freeman, Emanuel county, among the most prominent people in that section of the State, and all well-known throughout Eastern Georgia, began a hunt for each other, armed with Winchester.

News of a bloody encounter and the probable killing of several of them is expected hourly. The trouble grew out of a horsewhipping affray between Thomas Brown and Benjamin Stevens, resulting from political matters.

YOU MAY TAKE IT FOR GRANTED

Judge I. G. Kimball has been conducting both branches of the Police Court this month. In some cases he has been very lenient and in others he has been somewhat severe. It was very commendable in Judge Kimball on Tuesday morning when he dismissed three colored men who had been arrested by officers T. E. English and C. P. Posey. The evidence showed that the officers had assaulted one of the colored men without cause, and Judge Kimball took occasion to give them a good reprimand, having committed this assault on this colored man, while he was under arrest and while he was not making any resistance.

Lawyer J. Moses Ricks, who is a very successful man had a good week last and this week. Mr. Ricks is more or less successful in the prosecution of his cases.

There are a certain class of men who stand around the Police Court and do nothing but caps. Officer Flinn has broken up the street corner loafers and his attention is now directed to the capers.

Lawyer W. L. Houston, who has been quite conspicuous around the courts within the last few days has made himself scarce recently. His wife has demanded his services and he is now defending a new born client. It is a boy. Mr. Houston has never had such a client as this to deal with before and it is a knotty question with him at this time.

There is some talk about asking President Cleveland to appoint a colored Judge of the Police Court at the expiration of Judge Kimball's term.

There are quite a number of young men who would be willing to succeed Judge Kimball and would no doubt make their mark on the bench. It is believed that Mr. Cleveland would take kindly to a recommendation of a colored Judge.

In the event that Mr. Cleveland should appoint a colored Judge, it is not likely that there would be a great deal of opposition from the bar association.

There is more jealousy among colored attorneys than there is among any other class of professional men. If colored attorneys would do the right thing by organizing a bar association, it is believed that they would succeed better.

Some months ago there was an attempt to organize a bar association, or one was organized with Prof. J. M. Langston, President. It is said that an attempt was made to bring in politics, hence it died a natural death. There is but little, if any system among the colored attorneys. Some claim to know more law than others and indeed none know more than what should be known.

There is but little capping going on at present, as it was said in a statement above. There is not so much standing on the outside of the court house waiting and watching for the Police Court van.

There is too much red tape business in the lower branch of the Police Court. One would suppose that any lawyer could call out his client if he is desirous. It is not so. You must have a card, either signed by the Judge or clerk of the court.

Up stairs it is different. An attorney puts his name on a slip of paper and hands it to one of the deputies, and you can see your client without ceremony. Of course there is an assistant Judge down stairs to Judge Kimball.

This assistant (?) hasn't politeness enough to give an attorney a respectful answer. No doubt Judge Kimball would call him down if his attention was called to it. The attorneys do not like to make complaints; they believe that these would be judges can injure them in their business, hence take more than they would otherwise. It is not so with all the lawyers. There are some lawyers who know their rights and there are others who are afraid to differ with the court on law points.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY
COTTON STATES AND INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION,
ATLANTA, GA.

The Southern Railway operates nearly five thousand miles of road in eight of the Southern States and its lines enter Atlanta, Ga., from five different points of the compass. Washington, D. C., is the Northern or Eastern terminus of one of its lines, which is operated in connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad, "the standard railroad of America," between New York through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., Lynchburg and Danville, Va., Greensboro and Charlotte, N. C., Spartanburg and Greenville, S. C., Atlanta, Ga., Montgomery and Mobile, Ala., and New Orleans, with connection at Salisbury for Asheville, Hot Springs, Knoxville and Chattanooga, at Charlotte for Columbia, Augusta, Savannah and Jacksonville, and at Atlanta for Birmingham, Memphis, Macon and Southern Georgia. Solid vestibuled limited trains, with through day coaches, Pullman Drawing-room Sleepers and Dining-cars. Time between Washington and Atlanta, eighteen hours, without change of cars of any class.

The Southern Railway is the only line which enters and lands passengers in the Exposition Grounds, and no effort or expense has been spared by the management in the improvement of its roadbed, increasing the number of its coaches and inaugurating its own dining car service preparatory to handling expediently and comfortably the heavy travel to and from Atlanta during the Cotton States and International Exposition, which opens September 18 and closes December 31, 1895.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, from September 17 to December 21, inclusive, excursion tickets will be sold from Washington, D. C., to Atlanta, Ga., at $4.00, good for return to date of sale.

Excursion tickets will be sold every day from September 16 until December 15, inclusive, from Washington at $9.25, good for return to date of sale, and excursion tickets for the entire Exposition season with final limit of January 7, 1896, will be sold from September 16 until December 15, inclusive, at $26.25.
